01.12 | Mary Jo Bang is the winner of the 2008 National Book Critics Circle Award for her collection, Elegy: Poems. She is the author of The Bride of E; Louise In Love; and Eye Like A Strange Balloon. She is the director of the Creative Writing program at Washington University.

01.12 | Mark Bibbins teaches in the Creative Writing program at The New School in New York City. He is a founding editor of LIT magazine, and is the author of two collections of poetry: Sky Lounge; and, most recently from Copper Canyon Press, The Dance of No Hard Feelings.

01.26 | Andrei Codrescu is a novelist, poet, essayist and regular commentator for National Public Radio. He is the author of over forty books including The Posthuman Dada Guide; New Orleans; Mon Amour; Wakefield; and Jealous Witness. His visit is generously sponsored by Seven Days of Opening Nights.

02.16 | Jack Fuller is a novelist and winner of the Pulitzer Prize for editorial writing for his work with the Chicago Tribune. He is the author of Fragments; Abbeville; and News Values: Ideas for an Information Age. Mr. Fuller joins us through the generosity of Robert Olen Butler.

02.23 | Keith Ratzlaff is the winner of the Anhinga Prize for Poetry and is the author of Then A Thousand Crows; Dubious Angels: Poems After Paul Klee; Man Under A Pear Tree; and Across The Known World.

03.02 | Jerome Stern Benefit featuring readings by Mark Hinson, Diane Roberts, Janet Burroway, Bucky McMahon and Pamela Ball, plus a few surprise guests! Benefits the Stern Fund for the FSU Creative Writing Program.

03.16 | D.A. Powell teaches at the University of San Francisco, and is the editor of the online magazine, Electronic Poetry Review. His collections of poetry include Chronic; Tea; Lunch; and Cocktail.

03.30 | Mary Childers is the Ombudsperson at Dartmouth College and is the author of the memoir, Welfare Brat. 706 W Gaines St; Tallahassee, FL 32304 • 8.00pm Tuesdays @ The Warehouse