Following is a representative list of employers in the Tallahassee area who have sponsored internships. Please visit the company's web site or make a phone call for more information if a contact person or e-mail address is not listed. Keep in mind that the contact information listed here may have changed since our most recent update. Even if the contact information here is not current, someone at the company will most likely be able to point you in the right direction. It is the intern's responsibility to check the agency contact information prior to applying for an internship.

University Publications and Offices

Student Government Association and Other Student Publications
Contact: Marvin Harris (850) 644-0037 mharris2@admin.fsu.edu
Description: The internship requires the intern to write articles pertaining to events that will occur at FSU. Interns will also edit each others work, and conduct interviews.

FSU Sports Information Office
Contact: Zach Stipe, (850) 644-1403 zstipe@admin.fsu.edu
Description: Intern will attend all sporting events, help with media releases, interviews, articles, and media guides.

FSU Office of News and Research Communication
2023 Wescott Building, FSU Campus
Elizabeth Bettendorf, ebettendorf@admin.fsu.edu, 850-644-5929
Description: Interns responsibilities will include reporting and writing stories that will appear on the FSU website, as well as news releases and possibly others publications and news sites.

Black Student Union
Florida State University Student Government Association
Kiaira McCoy, Kiairamccoy@gmail.com
Description: Intern responsibilities will vary depending on the need of the organization. They include but are not limited to assigning stories for writers, editing articles for content, sentence structure and grammar, writing stories, and overseeing all steps of production for the organization. Students may also edit presentations, proposals, and letters produces on the Black Student Union’s behalf.

University Communications—Office of Digital Media
600 W. College Ave. Office 0008, Tallahassee, Fl 32306
Dennis Schnittker, dschnitt@fsu.edu, 850-644-1360
Description: Primary responsibilities include, researching story ideas, writing scripts, creating rundowns, transcribing video, and other producing responsibilities.

Office of Undergraduate Research
282 Champions way, UCA 3600, Tallahassee, Fl 32306-2380
Dr. Joe O’Shea, Joshea@fsu.edu, 850 645-8118
Description: Duties may include editing materials for incoming students, editing syllabi, communicating in person and via e-mail and in person with the administrators, faculty, and students.

Office of New Student and Family Programs
282 Champions way, Tallahassee, Fl, 32306
Andrea Failing, afailing@admin.fsu.edu
Description: The intern will be expected to coordinate orientation schedules, work to create articles for the WGR newsletter, as well as content for the orientation calendar.

Seminole Boosters
http://boosters.fsu.edu/internships
Description: Seminole Boosters offers internships every semester for credit or just for experience. We have students who focus in many different ranges from IT, Graphic, Business, Marketing, Sports Admin, any major really. Every semester the needs change for the positions available and Boosters may offer students to stay longer than a semester if they worked well.

Sports Information Office
Chuck Walsh; cwalsh@fsu.edu (850)-644-1077
FSU School of Theatre
Marketing Office, Fine arts Building (Annex) 540 W. Call St. Tallahassee, Fl 32301
Susan Thomas, sthomas4@admin.fsu.edu, (850) 645-1958
Description: Interns will compose press releases, reviews, and online content for upcoming shows and events in the FSU School of Theatre.

Florida State University TIPS Newsletter
Phone: 850-644-0037, A302 Union, Tallahassee Fl, 32306
Marvin Harris, mharris@admin.fsu.edu
Description: TIPS provides graphic design and printing services to recognized student organizations. Interns will be writing and editing multiple campus related articles as well as editing other staff members work.

Florida State University- English Department Newsletter: Scroll, Scribe, & Screen
Susan Hellstrom, shellstrom@fsu.edu
Scroll, Scribe & Screen is the alumni publication of the English department at Florida State University. To be eligible for an internship with Scroll, you need to have previously served as a writer for the publication and have gotten permission from the advisors to rejoin the staff as an intern. As an intern, you will serve as an editor and team leader, helping to guide a group of five to ten students through the interview, draft, and revision stages of writing a magazine-style non-fiction article. You will also help guide them through the photography and page-design process. After the articles are written and designed, you will be asked to help with the final editing of the entire publication.

The Journal for Early Modern Cultural Studies
Department of English, FSU, Tallahassee, Fl, 32306-1580
Daniel Vitkus, DVitkus@fsu.edu
Description: Interns will work to correspond with scholars, publishers, reviewers and other editors regarding journal business, design and implement fundraising strategies, work to advertise the journal at conferences within the academic community, meet deadlines for publication materials as well as website editing and design.

The Southeast Review- FSU
Brandi George - blg08d@my.fsu.edu
southeastreview@gmail.com;
Description: They work under the supervision of the Editor-in-Chief of The Southeast Review--currently, Katie Cortese--as well as the current assistant editor. Interns' responsibilities entail attending and participating in full-staff creative meetings, editing the current issue of the journal-in-progress, contributing to SER’s Writing Regimens Program by drafting and editing writing prompts, riff words, quotes, and other materials, preparing mailings, logging and reading contest entries, serving as a reader of submissions to SER, and other duties as assigned.

Maggie Allesee National Center for Choreography
Ansje Burdick, aburdick@fsu.edu, 850-322-4835
Description: Interns will work to advertise events, edit media publications, as well as reach former and upcoming artists making sure all tour information is up to date.

Seminole Productions
Mark Rodin - Executive Director - Seminole Productions, Faculty – Department of Communication
850-644-6275 (Office), 850-294-3313 (Cell), 850-644-1165 (Fax)
Florida State University, 403 Stadium Drive, Suite D2226, Tallahassee, FL 32306-2340 mark.rodin@fsu.edu

FSU Honors Office
James Mathes, jmathes@admin.fsu.edu, 850-644-1841
Description: Interns will work to write and edit content in a newsletter put out by the Honors Office, as well as duties specific to the department at the time of the internship.

University Communications, News and Public Affairs
Westcott Bldg., Suite 102
Jeanette De Diemar; jdediemar@admin.fsu.edu (850)-644-2466
Description: University Communications is the news, information and public relations unit of The Florida State University, one of the nation's elite research universities.
FSU Center for Intensive English Studies (C.I.E.S.)
Patrick Kennell, pkennell@fsu.edu (850)-644-4797
Description: CIES is an English language school for serious students who want to succeed at an American university. C.I.E.S. is staffed with highly qualified instructors that have all obtained a Master's degree in the field of Teaching English as a Second Language.

Rhetoric/Composition Program, Department of English
Michael Neal, mrneal@fsu.edu
Description: This internship varies depending on the need of the program at the time. It will involve basic editing, archiving, and formatting of department materials.

FSU Art Department
220 FAB 540 West Call Street
Mary Stewart, mstewart3@fsu.edu
Description: Interns help to research and visually construct lectures, create sample assignments, including exhibition reviews, extended Powerpoints for Expeditions Project and State of the Art, serve as mentor to students as they write their papers and developed their presentations. Students need a LOT of help in this area, and interns who are good writers tend to be excellent coaches.

FSU Department of English
Contact: Jack Clifford (850) 644-0235, jclifford@fsu.edu
Description: As an intern with the English department, you will be asked to edit articles for academic journals as well as articles for the department's alumni newsletter. Familiarity with the Modern Language Association style guide and Associated Press style is helpful, as is an understanding of the design process. Promotional writing for department news and accomplishments might be assigned to the intern.

FSU College of Education
1114 W. Call Street. Tallahassee. FL 32306
Amber Smalley; asmalley@fsu.edu ; (850)-645-7146
Description: The Florida State University College of Education is seeking interns with excellent writing, graphic design, event planning, and/or digital media production skills to assist with increasing the College's visibility among peer institutions and prospective students. The internship will require a 15 to 20-hour per week commitment throughout the Spring 2012 semester, and will provide a stipend of $500 payable at the end of the semester.

The Center for Leadership and Civic Education Dunlap Success Center
100 South Woodward Avenue FSU, Tallahassee, Florida 32306
Danielle Bolden, bolden.danielle@gmail.com (850)-645-6981

Florida Resources and Environmental Analysis Center
C2200 University Center C, Tallahassee, FL
Georgianna Strode, gstrode@admin.fsu.edu, (850) 644-5886
Description: Interns will write and edit promotional and explanatory materials for companies Florida Resources and Environmental Analysis Center provides support for.

FSU Department of Athletics
403 Stadium Dr, P.O. Box 2195, Tallahassee, FL 32316
Elliott Finebloom, efinebloom@fsu.edu, (850) 644-1065
Description: Interns will research, interview, and write feature stories on FSU athletes.

Non-Profit Agencies

Florida First Amendment Foundation
www.floridafaf.org Contact: Barbara A. Petersen 850-222-3518
Description: Interns duties may range from routine clerical duties to helping with legislative issues.

March of Dimes
(850) 422-3152, FL617@marchofdimes.com
Description: In local communities across the country, we’re helping moms take charge of their health, and supporting families when something goes wrong. The March of Dimes also acts globally: sharing best practices in prenatal health and helping improve birth
Outcomes where the needs are the most urgent. Interns will be responsible for editing and distribution of media releases and alerts, as well as create and design flyers, invitations, and other print materials. Interns will also write and edit a monthly newsletter, work with social media marketing, event coordination, volunteer management, and database management.

Innocence Project of Florida
Jackie Pugh, jpugh@floridainnocence.org, 850-561-6767
Description: This organization seeks to use DNA evidence to exonerate wrongfully convicted people. Interns will be publishing weekly blog posts as well as handling the project’s social networking sites. Interns are also responsible for outreach and organization of fundraisers. Student will also attend meeting with legal interns, learning about wrongful convictions, the way the program works, and other facts of the Innocence Project and its mission.

Florida PIRG (Environmental Protection)
310 N. Monroe St.
Vanessa Wright-Field Organizer, Vanessa@studentpirgs.org
Description: Students will be in charge of organizing a team of students to help raise awareness about issues such as energy efficiency. This would include contacting local schools and organizations, and giving presentations to younger students about what they can do to help the environment.

Everglades Trust
625 N. Adams St, Tallahassee Fl
Noah Valenstein, noah@brightwaterstrategies.com, 850-251-2116
Description: Duties vary, but center around maintaining the Everglades Trust’s numerous websites and social media. Interns may also work as note-takers during meetings at the capital when lobbyists have been unable to attend the meetings. Additionally, interns may distribute flyers or fork to petition for Everglades funding to senators and state representatives.

Florida Association of Broadcasters
201, S. Monroe St., Suite 201, Tallahassee Fl, 32301
Lindsay Varn, Lvarn@fab.ord, 850-681-32301
Description: FAB is a non-profit organization that serves all TV and radio stations in Florida. Interns will work with Public Service Announcements. They will review the list of campaigns for various organizations in search of PSA airtime. Additionally, interns will be calculating airtime rates, creating reports of airtime for clients monthly, and contacting TV and radio stations in the state.

Disability Rights of Florida
2728 Centerview Dr. Suite 102, Tallahassee, FL 32301
Sylvia Smith, sylviadsabilityrightsflorida.org
Description: Interns will create website content development, design flyers and ads, drafting newsletters, writing for social media, and voicing and creating videos for the organization’s youtube channel.

Law / Government

David Frank Injury Law
1584 Metropolitan Blvd. Suite 102 Tallahassee FL, 32308
David Frank, davidfrankinjurylaw@gmail.com, (850)-224-4357
Description: An intern would be working in a personal injury law firm. The firm works to incorporate the intern as much as possible into their business. Interns attend court hearings and help in case planning, along with basic exposure to legal work. Interns work behind the scenes as well as in the courtroom.

Settlement Services Inc.
2032 D Thomasville Rd, Tallahassee, FL 32308
Loree Kovach, lkovach@nettally.com, (850)-385-1551
Description: This industry comprises establishments of legal practitioners (except offices of lawyers and attorneys, settlement offices, and title abstract offices). These establishments are primarily engaged in providing specialized legal or paralegal services. Settlement Services, Inc. can be more broadly classified into the Professional, Scientific, and Technical Services sector, defined as companies that engage in processes where human capital is the major input.

Office of the Attorney General
Hillary Gill, mailto:hilary.gill@myfloridalegal.com, 850-414-3589
Description: Working for the Office of the Attorney General affords undergraduate and law students an opportunity to gain practical experience in legal, law enforcement, criminal justice, victim services, or technology field and offers students a chance to perform meaningful work toward the completion of their degree.

Florida Commission on the Status of Women
(850) 414-3300 info@fcsw.net
Description: Interns duties would include but are not limited to: general office duties, archiving materials, updating FCSW Library and Master File Key, research annual Report, create fact Sheets on various topics, assist Florida Women’s Hall of Fame/Ceremony/Committee Work..etc. (Held in March during Women’s History Month), create FCSW Display Board on various topics, attend various Women’s Events and represent the Commission, such as the TCC Women’s History Month Celebration, where a booth of materials are displayed.

Florida Department of Environmental Protection
3900 Commonwealth Blvd, Tallahassee, Florida 32399
Jennifer Diaz Jennifer.Diaz@dep.state.fl.us (850)-245-2112
Description: The DEP internship position would provide an array of experiences including assisting with daily Press Office needs (answering phones, taking media calls and requests, coordinating responses and drafting media materials). Additionally, interns will be assisting with researching for media inquiries. Interns will assist with drafting press releases, media advisories, agency statements, feature stories, fact sheets and more using AP Writing Style. Interns will also work to create and monitor content for DEP social media outreach, specifically DEP’s Facebook and Twitter accounts. Maintain information for public records.

Pittman Law Group
1028 E. Park Avenue, Tallahassee, FL 32301
Jasmyne James Jasmyne@pittman-law.com (850)-216-1002
Description: each semester their interns have different responsibilities as the company focus is different. In the summer, interns usually work with political campaigns for clients. In the fall the company’s focus is their annual events and legislative committee weeks. The spring is focused on the legislative session.

James Madison Institute
207 Delta Blvd #102, Tallahassee, Fl, 32303
Becky Liner, bliner@jamesmadison.org, 850-386-3131
Description: Interning with the capitol reporting division of the nonpartisan James Madison Institute requires a large amount of researching, writing, and editing. Interns will be responsible for giving their thoughts, opinions, and edits of the large amount of written work that the institute produces through their weekly, monthly, quarterly, and annual periodicals. Additionally, interns may be doing some film work as they collect interviews at the capital.

Ericks Consultants
205 S. Adams, Tallahassee, Fl, 32301
Janet Morris, 850-933-8775
Description: Ericks Consultants is a lobbying firm that represents many of the groups with political interest in Broward County. Interns will be doing office work, as well as attending the House of Representatives and Senate Committee meetings, listening for key points and writing down important parts for the lobbying firm.

Florida History and the Arts
Department of State, Division of Historical Resources, Bureau of Historic Preservation
(850) 245-6300 www.flheritage.com/services/magazine/

Leon County Public Information Office
Jon D. Brown (850) 606-5300 pio@leoncountyfl.gov
Description: The Leon County Public Information Office (PIO) maintains routine contact with all local news media outlets, prepares and disseminates Leon County news and information via news releases, notices and other publications, manages news conferences and events, and oversees the content of Leon County’s website.

Sprague Consulting and Investigations
1311 Executive Center Drive, Suite 110, Tallahassee, FL, 32301
Lisa Sprague, Lisa@Spragueconsultingsecurity.com (850)-656-9400
Descriptions: The responsibilities of an intern at Sprague include: Setting up and maintaining Social Network pages for campaign candidates, setting up databases for campaign donors and volunteers, editing campaign materials, establishing fundraising and marketing plans, producing marketing material for the consulting firm, and editing final consultations.

Florida Department of Health—Communications Department
Jessica Hammonds, Jessica_Hammonds@doh.state.fl.us
Description: Interns will work with a team alongside the state surgeon general and the governor. Responsibilities include editing articles before they are published, checking for grammatical errors, syntax, and validity. Students will also have the opportunity to write their own articles for publication.

Florida Department Community Legal Aid Society, Inc.
declasi.org
James McGiffin, jmcgiffin@declasi.org, (302) 674-8500
Description: Interns will oversee interviews, write case briefs, and perform legal research.

Executive Office of the Governor
Legal Office, The Capitol, PL, Tallahassee, FL 32399
Amy Bisceglia, acb@eog.myflorida.com (850) 717-9249

Senator Anitere Flores
316 Senate Building, 404 Monroe St., Tallahassee, FL, 32399
Maria Chamorro, Chamorro.maria.538@fisenate.gov
Description: Interns will be responsible to respond and edit constituent requests via e-mail and written letters. Interns will also assist in the editing and creation of the monthly newsletter and press releases. Interns will monitor the Senators legislation as it moves through session and assist in writing and editing responses to key issues.

The Florida Democratic Party
214 S. Bronough St., Tallahassee, Fl, 32301
Nicholas J. Pellito, NPellito@FLADEMS.com, 850-222-3411
Description: The Florida Democratic Party is a statewide organization focused on recruiting and electing viable democratic candidates and supporting the President in his bid for reelection. Interns will primarily focus on editing e-mails, drafts, memorandums, letters, new media, and other editing, writing, and media related work.

Republican Party of Florida
420 E Jefferson St PO Box 311 Tallahassee, FL 32301
Aaron Morell, amorell@rpof.org, (954) 632-7614
Description: Interns will work with the media department on campaigns and write and edit surveys, newsletters, and social media.

Law Offices of Mutagee Akbar, P.A.
324 N Copeland Street, Tallahassee, FL 32304
Ashley Hartsfield, (850) 383-0000
Description: Interns will view, edit, and draft legal documents for the law firm. Interns will also be responsible for viewing and submitting motions to the clerk of courts.

Education

Florida Department of Education
Office of Independent Education and Parental Choice
325 West Gaines Street, Tallahassee, Fl, 32399-0400
Cathy Russell, Cathy, Russell@fldoe.org, 850-245-0502
Description: Internship requires basic office organization and administrative jobs, along with writing and editing various educational resources. Intern will take phone calls from parents of private school students and work with scholarship programs.

Athletic Center for Excellence
1835 Whanish Way, Tallahassee, Fl, 32307
Brandi Tatum, btatum@famu.edu, 850-599-3868
Description: Student will work as a writing tutor, and peer review editor, The Athletic Center for Excellence provides extra tutoring for the student athletes of FAMU.
Solution Skills
565 East Tennessee St. P.O. Box 38098, Tallahassee Fl 32315
Randy Vickers, heyvick@solutionskills.com
Description: Solution Skills in an educational service company located in Tallahassee that offers tutoring, workshops, and test-prep classes to students from Middle School on through Graduate School. An internship with Solution Skills consists of running their weekly newsletter to customers. In addition, students will work within the company’s marketing and public relations department, cooperating with a commercial artist to create, update, and modify all marketing material from fliers and brochures to hard copy newsletters.

Advertising, Marketing, and Public Relations

ThinkCreative
info@thinkcreative.com  www.thinkcreative.com  (888) 224-1169, ext. 14
Description: Interns should expect to learn about how an agency is structured and to learn the basic lingo (CMS, CRM, Viral, Guerilla, SAU's, EPS, PDF, Demos, Added Value, and plenty more). They should be prepared to answer phones a bit (everyone has to start somewhere and we all do it). They should expect to learn about brand strategy, marketing, creative development, PR, and printing.

SM3 Marketing/ Social Solutions
501 E. Tennessee St. Suite C, Tallahassee, Fl, 32301
Ania Amador, ania@SM3Solutions.com, 407-575-5033
Description: Interns will be utilized as an editor for their numerous daily advertisements that are present on social media websites. Interns will also be responsible for proofreading and editing the business proposals that will be used to bring in new clients.

Franceschi Agency
Lee Ann Francieschi (850) 385-2900  www.franadvertising.com
Description: The Franceschi Agency is an advertising agency that has been around since 1968. They work to carry out effective marketing plans that are memorable and effective.

Zimmerman Agency
Haley Hogan, hogan@zimmerman.com
Description: Interns will be working on various accounts within the company. Responsibilities include drafting and copyediting press releases, pitching letters to clients, proofreading TV and radio promotional scripts, creating media lists.

Moore Consulting Group
Moore Consulting Group 2011 Delta Boulevard Tallahassee, FL 32303 Phone: 850.224.0174
Description: Whether it’s public affairs or advertising, media relations or website design—Moore’s list of services is diverse; with a very impressive portfolio.

Onyx Group
Copywriting intern
Please email resume & writing samples to jobs@onyxcreates.com
Description: Onyx is a creative consulting studio that specializes in marketing, strategic planning, website design, branding and graphic design.

Brandt Information Services
501 N. Duval St. Tallahassee, FL, 32301
Mackenzie Messmer, MackenzieMessmer@brandtinfo.com
Since 1985, Brandt Information Services has been working closely with government agencies and private businesses – implementing innovative strategies in Labor Market Research and Technology Projects & Staffing – to help improve efficiency, increase revenue, put job seekers back to work, and shore up states’ economies.

R.B. Oppenheim Associates
2040 Delta way, Tallahassee, FL 32303
Erin Schmidt, eschmidt@rboa.com (850)-386-9100
Description: As an RBOA digital marketing and public relations intern, you will have the opportunity to: gain experience executing integrated digital marketing campaigns, apply your social media, web, video and graphic design skills to real-life clients and campaigns, build your portfolio, participate in client meetings and brainstorming sessions, attend networking and career development events with industry professionals, gain confidence and a competitive edge in the job market, and have fun while improving your digital marketing skills.

MarketDone
508 Capital Circle SE Suite Dr, Tallahassee Fl, 32308
Deanna A. Mims, Dmims@marketdone.com, (850)-425-5240
Description: Interns will work directly with the owner of MarketDone and sometimes other extended team members, assisting with daily communication tasks such as identifying and contacting media with story ideas, creating media materials, drafting and editing communications vehicles, conducting research for projects, updating social media accounts, work hands-on with various clients and projects, signature event planning, marketing sales curriculum, press kits and releases.

Social Media Marketing Management Solutions
Anthony Murgio, Amurginc@gmail.com, 850-321-7753
Description: This internship will teach the ins and outs of online marketing techniques. Interns will create and execute several different types of marketing campaigns, usually in a digital format. Interns will also learn how to interpret campaign analytics and apply that data to future campaigns. Interns will also be responsible of the social media pages for the company, updating at least four times a week.

The Mayfield Group
1401 Oven Park Dr #101, Tallahassee, FL 32308
Nancy Click, nclick@mayfieldpr.com, (850) 421-9007
Description: The Mayfield Group is a local public relations agency that needs interns to write and edit in various mediums on their behalf.

CareMessage Public Relations
Caremessage.com
Carrie Thompson, carrie@caremessage.com, (850) 222-3767
Description: Interns will conduct market and opposition research, format and distribute news clips, write press materials, edit, and create publicity reports for clients on a weekly and monthly basis.

Start Up Scholar, Inc.
Joe O'Shea, joe@startupscholar.org
Description: Start Up Scholar (startupscholar.org) is a crowdfunding platform for students in higher education. Interns work directly with students and student groups at universities around the U.S. to assist with writing, editing, and marketing project pages.

Radio/Television/Film

WFSU
1600 Rd Barber Plaza, Tallahassee, Florida, 32310
Trimmel Gomes, tgom@fsu.edu
Description: WFSU is seeking students with a particular interest in radio broadcasting. They prefer students with some experience in media. When they’ve selected a student, they learn the basics of recording and editing. They begin with researching and gathering interviews for the news team. They shadow a reporter and practice rewriting news copies for air and transcribing interviews. They will have a basic understanding of how this and other Public Radio stations operate while gaining a rudimental facility in story researching, conducting face-to-face and telephone interviews with newsmakers and assembling story elements into air-quality product. In the end, interns will be able to write effectively, accurately, and in accepted broadcast style.

WVFS Tallahassee 89.7FM (The Voice of Florida State)
420 Diffenbaugh Tallahassee, Florida, 32306-1550
Dr. Misha Laurents (850)-644-9692
Description: Internships focus on all aspects of radio broadcast, including announcing, news, sports, PR, writing, production, and development. Usually students doing internships work in a combination of these areas.

WCTV
1801 Halstead Blvd. Tallahassee, Fl 32309
Lee Gordon, Lee.gordon@wctv.tv, 850-893-6666 ext. 239
Description: Interns duties include editing news articles, learning to write for news online and on the air, and creating mock news packages.

Cumulus Broadcasting LLC
3411 West Tharpe St., Tallahassee, Florida
Laura Clark, laura.clark@cumulus.com (850)-201-3000
Description: As an Intern for Cumulus Tallahassee, you will work in all departments and learn all aspects of radio. By the end of your internship, you will know the basics of: Running a board, prepping and implementing a radio show, creating a commercial, putting together a successful radio promotion, how to target, approach and close a client to advertise, maintaining existing clients and networking, all technological aspects of radio, how to put together a traffic log, and all accounting processes.

Thunder Road Films
Noah Winter, noah.winter@thunderroadfilms.com
Description: Thunder Road Films is a film and television production company with first look deals at Warner Brothers Pictures and Sony Television. Past credits include THE TOWN, CLASH OF THE TITANS, BROOKLYN’S FINEST, WE ARE MARSHALL, and the upcoming WRATH OF THE TITANS. Interns will perform heavy script coverage, as well as miscellaneous office tasks. Daily interaction with assistants and executives provides a great opportunity to learn film and television development on a first-hand basis.

Torchlight Program
387 Commerce Blvd. Midway, FL, 32343
Paul Cohen; Paulcohenfilm@gmail.com (646)-244-5598
Description: The Torchlight Program is a non-degree granting academic program designed to enhance the education of film students by providing instruction in current and emerging business practices of the motion picture industry.

The Red Hills, Motion Picture Releasing Company LLC
1400 Village BLVD Suite#3-246 Tallahassee, Florida 32313-1231
Paul Cohen, Paulcohenfilm@gmail.com, (646)-244-5598
Description: Student interns from the writing department will be actively engaged in creating tweets, blogs, posts, synopsis, wiki’s and reviews for a number of independent feature films that are or will be released in movie theaters and on DVD and VOD throughout the United States during this semester. Additionally interns will be the support staff for a number of film presentations as part of the Torchlight Programs screening series.

Viral Crew Media
501 East Tennessee St. Tallahassee, Fl
Bryan Dillard and Chad Green, viralwriting@gmail.com
Description: Viral Crew Media is a video production company that gives English Major interns a chance and opportunity to develop their social marketing and media skills. Interns will learn in a hands-on environment how to actively update multiple blogs and social platforms, including Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube. Additionally, Viral Crew Media will help teach the techniques in writing professional treatments and scripts for actual television and web commercials. Not only will interns be surrounded by a constant flow of production cycles, they will be encouraged to assist in editing and film production if they so desire.

Magazine, Newspaper, & Online Media

FSView and Florida Flambeau
954 West Brevard Street, Tallahassee, Florida
Emily Ostermeyer, managing_editor@fsview.com (850) 561-1613
Description: Intern will work closely with the newspaper content supervisor, getting a feel for how the newspaper is produced. Intern will work through social media to advertise for the company, as well as gain experience recording events in the community.

Gadsden County Times
15 S. Madison St. Quincy, FL 32351
Pat Faherty, gm@gadcotimes.com, (850)- 627- 7649
The Gadsden County Times is a source for local news, sports, events and information in Gadsden County and Quincy, FL, and the surrounding area. This newspaper is available in print as well as online. They cover: news, sports, opinion, obituaries, public notices, and Classifieds. Interns would be editing articles and learning the skills required to run and produce a local newspaper.
The Yeti
fsuyeti@gmail.com
http://www.theyetionline.com/
Description: The Yeti is Tallahassee’s only independent media source and covers news, views, arts, sports and features a literature section. They publish twice in print a semester and online more frequently. The publication’s goal is to educate the community, inspire informed discourse and create aware, active members of society. Interns will write 2,500 words per credit hour registered, help with distribution, write once for each section (excluding literature) and learn more about the inside workings of a publication.

Tallahassee Woman Magazine
PO Box, 13401 Tallahassee, Florida 32317-3401
Kim Rosier, Kim@talwoman.com (850)-893-9624
Description: An internship at Tallahassee Woman Magazine provides a well-rounded opportunity to learn and experience the magazine field. Interns gain experience in writing, editing, interviewing, research, distribution, and public relations.

Capital City Villager
TallyVillager.com
Joe Berg, Publisher, JoeW Berg@gmail.com, 850-320-7805
Description: The Capital City Villager is a new, alternative weekly magazine that covers arts, culture, and news from the Tallahassee area. It also includes a comprehensive calendar of events. Interns would be responsible to write and edit for the magazine while gaining experience in the publishing industry.

Sumo Skinny Magazine
Silas Dunham, sd@sumoskinny.com, 207-577-7123
Sumo Skinny Magazine is a local and national magazine devoted to college life around the United States. Interns would work to be a correspondent for FSU, attending and reporting on events that happened here locally.

Tallahassee Democrat
277 Magnolia Dr. Tallahassee, Fl, 32301
Jeanie Booth, JBooth@tallahassee.com, (850)-599-2342
Description: Interns will be assisting with the promotion of events that the Democrat will be putting on as well as facilitating and organizing the events to make sure they are easily executes. Interns will also write articles in the Democrat to notify people of these occasions.

Black Card Media
Brendan Bonhan, Brendan@Blackcardmedia.com
Description: Black Card media offers several internships, but the writing one boils down to interns writing humorous content that may be published in a local humor/entertainment magazine. Black Card currently distributes to 15 campuses, each with their own unique content. Students get on-campus oversight through the editorial manager the company hires at each school, and feedback from a national level out of their home offices in Chicago.

The Hometown Fan
Drew Kerr, DrewKerr@thehometownfan.com, 623-202-5023
Description: The Hometown Fan launched on April 17th, 2011 serving as a platform where information can be read and discussed by fans of every team. THF’s sole purpose is to streamline sports stories and discussion to the fans without the flooding and saturation of inexperienced writing that other sites tend to do to get high traffic ratings. Interns would choose a particular area of the sports world to follow and report on, ranging from high school ranks to professional teams.

The Reader Eclectic
Noel Rivera, cnrivera@gmail.com
http://www.thereadereclectic.com/
The Reader Eclectic is all about offering fun and honest book reviews by and for people who just love reading. Interns would contribute as reviewers and content writers on the site and gain experience writing content for online, using the Wordpress platform, working under an editor, and meeting deadlines. Interns must be able to write at least three book reviews of 500 and 1000 words per month; be able to demonstrate excellent writing skills; become familiar with the style and tone of The Reader Eclectic and be able to emulate it; read extensively and be familiar with genre fiction, particularly science fiction, fantasy, graphic novels, or manga (as these are the primary genres reviewed on the site); be able to respond well to critiques and edits; be able to meet deadlines and finish assignments without extensive monitoring; be excellent at communicating through email and in person.

Uloop Student News Network
Blog.uloop.com
Karl Hagnes, Karl@uloop.com
Description: Uloop is an online news network for college students. Interns will write two news articles per week and may need to conduct research and interviews.

Hubze, Inc.
Hubze.com
David Foster, David@hubze.com, (850) 391-4193
Description: Hubze is a blog dedicated to social media, marketing, and design. Interns will be assigned a variety of editing and marketing tasks as well as blogging, product trial and analysis, product development, and social marketing.

180 Communications
team180pr.com
Michelle Grant, michelle@team180.com
Description: 180 Communications is a public relations firm. Interns will perform a variety of tasks including writing for multiple media.

Electric Live Music Magazine
River Davis, r.davis@electriclivemusic.com, (954) 224-1146
Description: Interns are responsible for a daily report of current information on 15 electronic music artists. Utilizing information from daily reports, interns will be assigned articles to write as well as feature articles for specific issues of the magazine.

Publishing Companies

Anhinga Press
(850) 442-1408 info@anhinga.org
Description: Anhinga Press began in 1972 as an outgrowth of the activities of Apalachee Poetry Center, a non-profit organization promoting the reading and understanding of poetry by bringing artists and writers together. In addition to the various book series, Anhinga continues its tradition of over 30 years by publishing other books by poets of national stature.

Rowland Publishing
1932 Miccosukee Road, Tallahassee, FL 32308.
Rosanne Dunkelberger, rdunkelberger@rowlandpublishing.com, (850)-878-0554
Description: The works requires will range from editing pieces of work, compiling and editing calendar events for Tallahassee Magazine, and being in the office for fourteen hours a week minimum to do whatever organizational or editorial tasks that may need done.

Renegade Publishing, Inc.
Renegadereport.com
Farhood Basiri, fbasiri@fsu.edu, (407) 412-7467
Description: Interns will utilize interviewing skills, attend press conferences, and write sports-related pieces.

Local Businesses

ALARM International, Inc.
367 Marpan Lane, Tallahassee, FL, 32305
Kevin Alford, info@alarmministries.org, 850-766-0726
Description: Interns will work as staff editors, proofreading and editing ministry Websites, book manuscripts, training and operations manuals, letters, fliers, and other ministry publications for electronic and print distribution.

Florida Historic Capitol Museum
400 South Monroe Street, Tallahassee, FL 32399
Michelle Gammon Purvis; Purvis.michelle@flhistoriccapitol.gov (850)-487-1902
City Of Tallahassee Public Information Office
300 South Adams Street Tallahassee, FL 32301
Lizzy Kelley, lizzy.kelley@talgov.com; (850)-891-8533

Trak Engineering
2901 Crescent Drive, Tallahassee, FL 32309
Katherine Blyth, kbleth@hrakeng.com (850)-878-4585. Ext 325
Description: Trak Engineering is a Mechanical, Electrical, Plumbing, Fire Protection (MEP) Engineering consulting firm specializing in Bio-Tech, Science, Technology, Higher Education, laboratory and Healthcare; as well as, providing owner representation services.

Tallahassee Museum
3945 Museum Dr. Tallahassee, Florida, 32310
Sarah Turner, sturner@tallahasseemuseum.org (850)-575-8684 ext.144

Bevshots
3539 Apalachee Pkwy. #56 Tallahassee, Fl 32311
Lester Hutt; lester@bevshots.com, (850)-264-9187
Description: BevShots.com sells gift products, fashion accessories and wall art that feature photographs taken at FSU's Mag Lab of what different cocktails look like under a microscope. Every semester, they bring on a content writing intern. The projects for this intern typically include content writing for the website, for printed marketing materials, for product packaging and for e-mail newsletters. This intern may also get experience with social media campaigns and with researching the best keywords for search engine optimization.